MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY

This we send greeting to all our pa trons and friends, while making many acknowledgments for courtesies, indulgencies and steady support during the faces, harpy smiles and good cheer crown every fire side. Life's joys and plessures are few and fleeting. With hearts uplifted in gratitude to the Great Giver of all good, let us partake of them, innocently but freely, as they pass THE TAX LEVY-QUICK WORK.

The Tax Bill finally passed the Legislature on Friday last, and the order to collect was sent to the County Treasurers the next day.

It levies a tax of fifteen mille, to wit : Five mills for current expenses, two the Sumter Book Store. mills for public schools, five mills for "deficiencies," and three mills for county

On its passage, a hard fight was made to tack on to it two mills more for "Jeficiencies," which was defeated only by astrong rally of the conservative elements of the body.

The notice of the County Treasurer, printed on another column, informs the Tax Pavers that his office will be opened for collections on the first day of January, and that the penalty will be added after the fifteenth of the month. This is quick work. We doubt if the Treasurer, without much clerical aid, could receive and receipt for all the taxes of the county within that limit of
